About Me

My name is Nebukadnezar Ahmad, but feel free to call me Ahmad. I'm a passionate and dedicated student with strong interests in technology, photography, videography, and graphic design. I consistently explore the world of digital creativity, aiming to use it as a tool to empower education and foster community impact. With a commitment to meaningful visual storytelling, I strive to deliver works that not only look good but also make a difference. Dive into my portfolio to discover projects I've proudly crafted.
